

Wyangala Country Club Memorial Garden (est 2023)

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Garden is owned and operated by:

Wyangala Country Club Ltd ABN: 38 001 011 507.

Its purpose be a peaceful and serene setting that provides a physical location for families and friends to visit and reflect on their loss.

As we strive to maintain high standards of beauty, peace and tranquility in the Garden. The following Rules and Regulations (the "Rules") are designed to support this objective as well as seeking to protect the safety of all those that visit and work in the Garden.

- Garden Access – All memorial requests are to be approved by the Board of the Club. Requests must be in writing and include proposed location and design of the memorial. The Club will not bear any costs associated with any memorial with the exception of general garden maintenance.
- Prohibited items - We may refuse, rectify or remove any ornamentation or changes to a Memorial or Site. For example, we will not allow and will remove items such as artificial flowers, statues, permanent wreaths or floral sprays, boxes, shells, glass and toys and anything that we consider detracts from the beauty of the Garden or is a safety hazard, or is in conflict with these Rules.
- Human Remains - This is a memory garden only, no human remains are to be buried or scattered within the Garden.
- Fresh Flowers - Fresh flowers may be placed near the Memorial on special occasions (including, but not limited to, the anniversary date, birth date, Mother's Day, Father's Day, Christmas). It is at the Clubs discretion when these flowers will be removed when no longer considered fresh. For the purpose of clarity - no vases or jars are permitted.
- Monuments – Monumental Structures are not permitted. Sites can be marked with a small plaque not greater in size than the paver supplied by the Club. Families wishing to plant a tree/shrub/flower must gain prior approval and provide relevant details of proposed variety that takes into consideration suitability to this site and environment. The Club will not be held responsible for the watering or survival of any tree/shrub/flower.
- Removal of trees - If any tree or shrub in the Garden or on a site becomes dangerous, detrimental, unsightly or annoying, we may remove it, or any part of it.
- Landscape – Landscaping is our responsibility. We have complete discretion in relation to decisions on landscaping and any other building or structures in the Garden. No person may plant, place or remove any grass, shrub, tree or any other structure without our prior consent.
- Alterations – For reasons of beauty, maintenance and safety of the Garden, we and only we may realign or alter the position of memorial spaces (including lifting and levelling of plaques).
- Events – From time to time (with permission) we may allow cultural, religious or other events to be held in any area of the Garden.
- Removal of people from the Garden - Any person engaging in offensive, inappropriate or improper conduct may be removed from the Garden.
- Children - Children must be properly supervised at all times. Unaccompanied children are not permitted in the Garden.
- Safety – While we take all reasonable care for the safety of visitors to the Garden and their belongings, it is the responsibility of those visitors to ensure their own safety and the protection of their possessions. The Club is not liable for personal injury, property damage or theft that occurs within the Garden unless solely caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of our employees or agents.
- Images of the Garden – We can use for any lawful purpose, including online, any visual representations (such as photographs, drawings, maps, film or video) of any portion of the Garden, including memorials.
- Garden development - We may at any time alter or change any feature (including plants), improvement or structure of the Garden.

- Changes to Rules and Regulations - In the interest of protecting our high standards of beauty, peace and tranquility, these Rules and Regulations may be subject to change.
